After its strong opening the stock market showed continued strength all through the first hour. Prices in nearly all the active issues not only recovered what they lost yesterday afternoon, but in many cases made further and material gains. Brokers active in the buying said that the improvement in the market tone is based to a great extent on cables that workmen in Russia were returning to work.

London bought 15,000 shares in the first hour, and the room, following this lead generally, took an aggressive position on the bull side.

Tennessee Coal and Iron rose to 38%.
An interest often having absolute information in regard to the United States Steel affairs said that the buying Tennessee Coal was not connected with any negotiations for consolidation with Sloss Sheffield, but is wholly based on the progress of a deal for the purchase of Tennessee Coal by United States Steel.

According to the information the Steel corporation will pay about 110 for Ten-

Confronted with the state of anarchy which exists in Russia today, and intimidated by the fear that a universial recolution throughout the empire may spring into being at any moment, bring-ing in its train the inevitable concomitants of murder, incendiarism and the destruction of property, it is safe to assume that, be the exchange rate what it may, not a single bar of gold or rouleau of eagles will be permitted to leave a European money center for America until Russian affairs have adjusted themselves. At this crisis Europe needs themselves. At this crisis Europe needs every dollar that she can muster. It follows that the local banks must depend upon their own efforts, together with such assistance as may be extended by individuals and non-clearing house institutions to relieve the tension in the local money market.

It is quite possible that should Russian internal disorders increase and finally inspire fear in the hitherto phlegmatic French investor, foreign banking houses would be as quick to recall their heavy New York balances as they were to take advantage of the high rates here by increasing them. If such events came to pass before the return of currency from the interior began, the embarrassment that would result is ob-

TO PRESS A DEAD GIRL'S DAMAGE SUIT

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 17 .- Attorneys for Miss Nona Stewart Burgess, of Texas, say that Miss Burgess' suit against G. Frank Cannon, jr., of Charlotte, N. C., for breach of promise will not abate because she died soon after bringing it. Both belong to prominent families.

At the War Department this morning it was stated that the report that a Representative was involved in the Schrikill Arsenal affair was absolutely untre and without foundation. Furthermore the department had received no reports such as the papers have published.
